

COVID-19 and Racial Equity in South Carolina

Individuals Tested, by Race

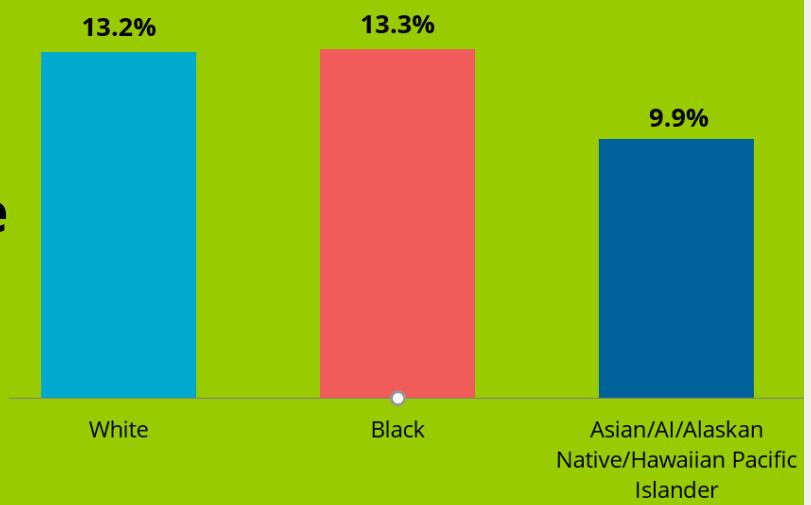

Rate per 1,000 population

Black individuals are 19.8% more likely to get tested for COVID-19 than White individuals.

Percent Positive of COVID-19 Tests, by Race

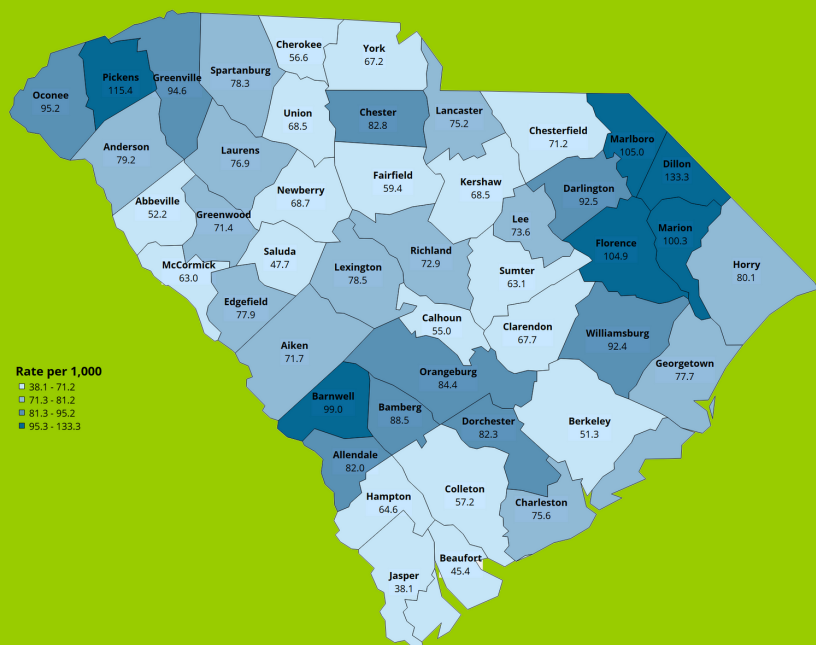

When comparing the percent of positive tests by race, Blacks have the highest rate of positivity at 13.3%.

Rate of COVID-19 Cases Among Blacks

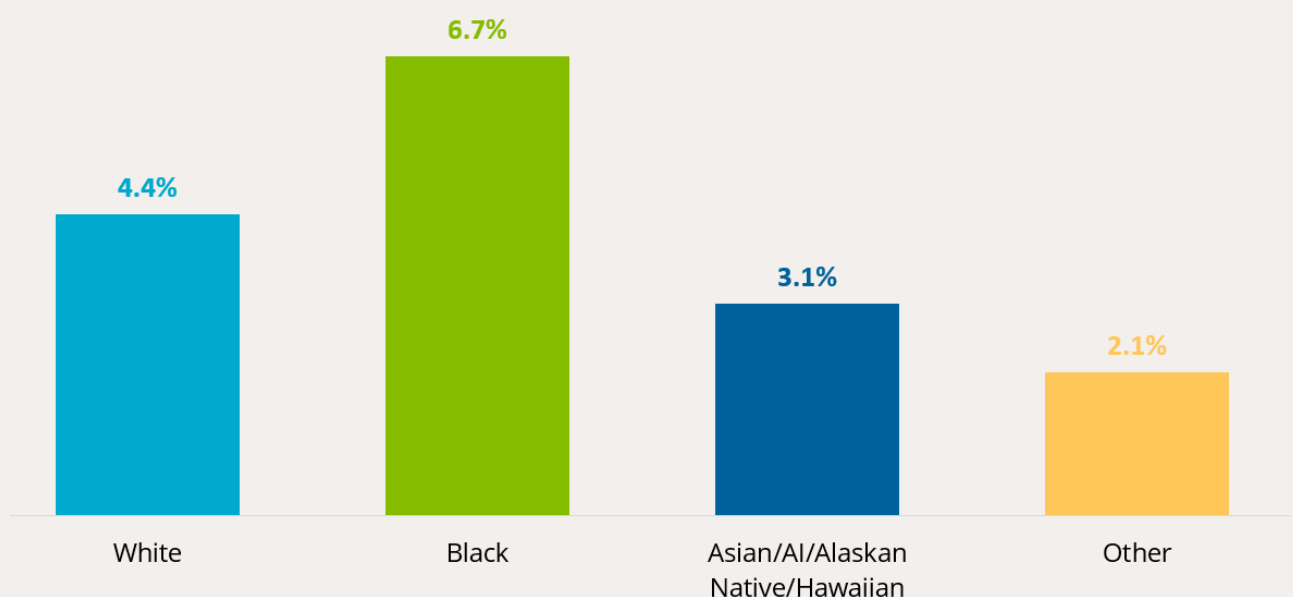

Rate of COVID-19 Cases Among Whites

Across the state, Blacks see higher rates of COVID-19 when compared to their White counterparts. Higher rates are seen across the I-95 corridor.

COVID-19 and Racial Equity in South Carolina

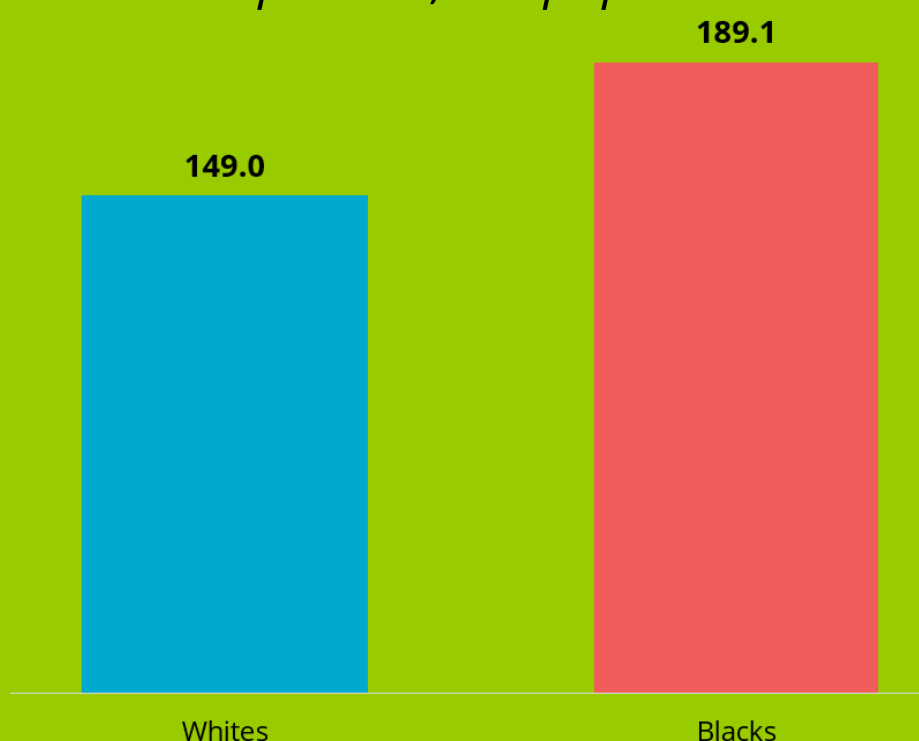

Percent of COVID-19 Related Hospitalizations, by Race

Blacks are hospitalized for COVID-19 at a higher rate than any other racial group.

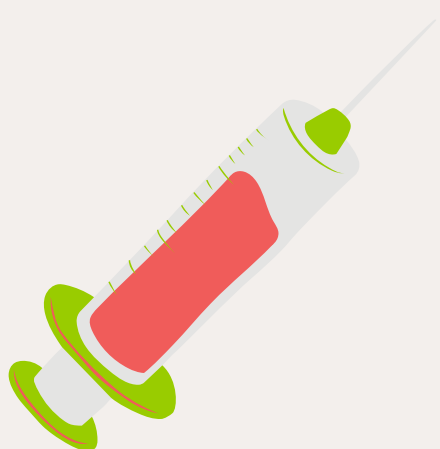

COVID-19 Deaths, by Race

Rate per 100,000 population

The death rate of Black individuals with COVID-19 was 26.9% higher than that of White individuals.

Summary

The burden of COVID-19 in South Carolina continues to weigh the heaviest on the Black community. Although they maintain high rates of testing, they still see the highest rates of cases, hospitalizations, and deaths.

It is important for all individuals to get vaccinated to help reduce the spread of COVID-19.

PRODUCED BY THE BUREAU OF POPULATION
HEALTH DATA ANALYTICS & INFORMATICS.

DATA AS OF 11:59 PM ON 6/1/2021
DATA ARE PROVISIONAL.